History

Now that we are finally Seniors of 1960-61, we look back into our past and we find that we had some very happy experiences. When we began school, we did not know how big a future lay abead of us.

In the first few years of scbool we studied hard and enjoyed all the activities that occurred.

In the eighth grade, we had a very exciting trip. We visited Raleigh and saw all the famous sites.

The next year we were dignified freshmen, very happy to know that we had at last arrived in high school. We had all looked forward to entering high school, because of the many activities in which we could take part. Some of us became ball players and many of us cheerleaders.

In the tenth grade we had a class party chaperoned by our homeroom teacher, Mr. Bryant Tripp. We had a marvelous time. Mr. Tripp always did love those parties.

In our Junior year our most exciting experience was our Junior-Senior Banquet. I think everyone, even our practice teacbers, Mr. Sutton and Mr. Eggleston, enjoyed preparing for this. It would have never been a big success if it had not been for Mrs. Allen, our Junior sponsor.

Now, at last, we have reached our long awaited year. We have entered our Senior year with the determination of being a great success in the future.

Yes, it has been good to be here in Maury High School for these twelve years. We will never forget the wonderful teachers and friends that we have had.

We hope that the rising seniors will be able to say that they have enjoyed their school days at Maury High School as we have enjoyed them.

Prophecy

On December 6, 1971, FREDDIE MEADOWS received a special delivery letter at her office in the Meadows-Carraway Interior Decorating House, Inc., in New York City. She was quite surprised to learn from the return address that it was from LINDA HARRELL Stepps, a hometown girl who had won a 2 weeks' visit to New York. Linda asked Freddie to have dinner with her at Sardi's the following evening.

Freddie and her friend and business partner, ELLEN CARRAWAY, met Linda for dinner the next evening. Naturally the conversation turned to their high school days back at old MHS. From the conversation the girls gained the following information:

Soon after graduation GENE ALBRITTON became a tobacco auctioneer. After many years of auctioneering his tongue became so twisted that no one could understand him. He is now teaching French at the Central High School.

BILLY BEAMAN graduated from UNC and became head coach at his old alma mater. Billy is married and has two very cute boys!

After much hard studying JIMMY CASH became an artist. Jimmy said the most difficult task for him was learning to draw a straight line with the aid of a ruler. Jimmy is an illustrator for the Hunter Publishing Company.

BILLY HILL is now a famous millionaire in Hollywood and answers to the name of "Lover Boy."

It seems that JAMES FAULKNER liked Waves so well that after graduation he decided to join the Navy and decided later on to make it a career.

SHELBY MOORE studied for many years and became a famous lawyer. She has just convicted America's most notorious gangster, Al Capone, III.

BOBBY MURPHREY became an English professor at Woman's College. Bobby says his only weakness is girls!

Mrs. James Stallings, the former ROSE HEATH, now owns and operates a beauty salon in Ormondsville. She specializes in giving permanents to bald-headed men.

After much encouragement and help from Mrs. Allen, KAY VANDIFORD became a shorthand teacher. She says one of her most promising students is Charles Allen, her former teacher's son.

Mrs. Steve Vandiford, the former BARBARA CROOM, is now living on a farm near Maury. Barbara and Steve have two lovely children.

KAY SUGG and MARGARET ROGERSON have a comedy program on radio station WOOW. The name of the program is "Maggie and Kate."

MARGIE MAYO married soon after graduation. She has four sets of twins. Margie always did like big families.

JULIAN JONES became a famous race car driver. He has won many races, including the Darlington '500.' Julian specializes in dragging his foot instead of using the brake.

In high school, BETTY MURPHREY always wanted to fly an airplane. Her wish never came true, but she's doing the next best thing—she's a trapeze artist. She is known as "The Flying Chasis."

PATRICIA CARRAWAY is now a hell driver at the State Fair in Raleigh. She is known as "The Maniac-on-a-Pontiac."

It seems that FLETCHER LEE became a miser. He has a very bad limp. They say the reason for this is because he carries so much money in the toe of his shoes.

BOBBY CARRAWAY is now a popular singer in a nightclub in Hawaii. He got his start by singing "Blue Hawaii" at the Junior-Senior banquet. He now sings to the merry tune of $450 a week.

MARY DAIL became an army nurse. She is one of the best-known nurses anywhere. She promises to cure you or kill you.

After graduating, BETTY HARDEE and her family moved to California where her husband is now the warden at Alcatraz.

BILLY HUMBLES and EDWARD MOORE are the proud owners of a gambling casino in Las Vegas. Billy and Edward liked it so much in school that they decided to make it their career.

LINWOOD DAUGHERTY is doing well for himself in Hollywood. He has had much success in his role as "Tarzan."

After dinner the girls bade Linda good-by and wished her a nice trip and a Merry Christmas.

ARTICLE I

We leave Maury High School with regret but proud of the education and wisdom that we have as a result of twelve years in its care and regretting that our class association is over.

ARTICLE 2

We, the Seniors, leave Mr. Caddell and our Senior Sponsor, Mrs. Brown—weary.

ARTICLE 3

To our beloved parents who have sacrificed so much, we leave our deepest love and gratitude and we hope that you can say that your sacrifices have not been in vain.

ARTICLE 4

To Sidney Murray, GENE ALBRITTON leaves his right to talk during class.

To Edward Mooring, BILLY BEAMAN leaves his ability to touch the hall lights.

To Betty Nethercutt, ELLEN CARRAWAY leaves her flirty ways.

PATRICIA CARRAWAY leaves to Lucille Cherry her sweet, thoughtful and studious ways.

JIMMY CASH leaves to Gene Eason his polite and courteous ways.

BARBARA CROOM passes her secrets of how to catch and keep a man to Joan Skinner.

To Jack Edmondson, LINWOOD DAUGHERTY leaves a quick and fiery temper.

To Jimmy May, JAMES FAULKNER wills his rock-hard muscles.

BETTY HARDEE wills her seat in the Senior class to her daughter, Lori.

Nervous LINDA HARRELL leaves her jittery ways to Emily Croom.

ROSE HEATH leaves her secrets of how to get a Giant Baseball player to Ann Bunn.

BILLY HILL leaves Russell Jones his slim figure.

BILLY HUMBLES wishes to thank all who have helped him graduate.

To all the unsuccessful boys, JULIAN JONES leaves his ability to "git the gals."

We, SHELBY MOORE and FLETCHER LEE, leave our talkative ways to the students of Maury Hi.

MARGIE MAYO leaves her Senior seat to her younger sisters, Kathleen and Faye. She hopes they will sit in it as proudly as she.

To Gayle Heath, FREDDIE MEADOWS leaves her ability to handle her man.

BETTY MURPHREY leaves her ability to type and read shorthand to Hazel Lee.

Tony Stocks will jump with joy when he hears that BOBBY MURPHREY has left him his ability to render "wise cracks."

EDWARD MOORE leaves his ability to get along with his teachers to James Radford.

MARGARET ROGERSON leaves her quiet ways to Joan Graves. Everyone hopes she will take heed.

KAY SUGG leaves her school bus to anyone who thinks he can handle it.

KAY VANDIFORD leaves her ability to catch the same man several times to her little sister, Mattie Lou.

I, MARY DAIL, leave my tall and slender figure to Hilda Nethercutt.

And I, BOBBY CARRAWAY, leave the halls of Maury High singing CHERRY PIE.

And also, MARY DAIL and I, on this, the Thirty-first day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and sixty-one, do sign and seal this testament, as our last official act.

SCHOOL SONG

Oh, when the Maury Team
Falls in the line,
We're going to play a game
and that's the sign.
We're going to fight, fight, fight,
For victory,
And let our names go down in Maury History.
We're going to shout, shout, shout,
At every game,
And the results will surely
Be the same, be the same.
Above the rest you'll always
Hear the name, hear the name,
MAURY HIGH. Rah!! Rah!!!
